Face to Face opportunities:

- International Lettering Conference 2019:
  Rendez-vous in Sherbrooke, Québec (Canada), June 29 - July 6, 2019.

- Sheila Waters' private classes at 851 Boyle Road, Fairfield, PA 17320, two miles from Emmitsburg, MD (one hour from Baltimore or Rockville). Instruction and individual help is given on any broad-pen style of calligraphy and with personal projects. Sheila teaches all day on alternate Saturdays throughout the year in her large studio with all her collected resources available for study. As instruction is entirely individual, students of all levels can come and go, as their commitments permit, between the hours of 10am and 5.30pm. Beginners are welcome and they can learn a lot from exposure to the ongoing work of more experienced students. There is no set curriculum. As far as we know this is the only class of its kind on the East Coast. Class size is very small with a maximum of ten. Fee is $50 for each visit.
  For dates contact Sheila at waters_sheila@yahoo.com or 717-642-6637.

- Harvest Crittenden Online classes:
  Harvest began teaching online classes in 2010 and they have proved to be a huge success. Students LOVE the opportunity to learn at home. No need to be online at a particular time, students are able to view the videos when they choose during the class semester. Watch as often as you like at a time that works for you. A project is recommended (but never required) and is uploaded to the student forum for gentle critiquing. It's a great way to study with friends even if those friends are across the country or across the globe! Acorn Arts has expanded to offer a wonderful selection of online class with guest artists throughout the year as well.
